Child Day Care – What is it?

Child Day Care is an opportunity for parents to combine their family duties with their work or study. It is also an opportunity for children to have individual care in a family atmosphere, which is especially important for infants.

Child Day Care is possible:

- at a nanny's home;
- in your own house;
- in some other suitable facilities / rooms.

You want your child's day care to...

- have consideration for your wishes, your working hours, your upbringing ideas;
- advance your children's interest and encourage their development in a family atmosphere.

We can offer such a support service. We can help you in searching and choosing professionally educated care workers.

Would you like to become a nanny?

If you like to communicate with children and take care of them, if you are ready to share your experience in dealing with children and find one additional child at your home to be a real enrichment for the whole family, you can be a nanny. As a nanny, you accompany children in very important phases of their life and take great responsibility towards them.

In order to become a nanny, you need a police clearance certificate and a medical certificate. This qualification is free of charge and takes place according to the Curriculum of DJI (Deutsches Jugendinstitut). It includes 160 academic hours in the classroom and an 8-hour first aid course focusing on children.

Child Day Care Charge /Costs

The Youth Welfare Office (Jugendamt) supports Child Day Care. Parents who need Child Day Care for their children apply for some financial support to Abteilung für Wirtschaftliche Jugendhilfe der Stadt Hagen. We will be pleased to give you additional information about such an application.

What can we offer?

- Consulting service, agency placement and practical support of care workers and parents;
- Information about qualification for nannies (for women as well as for men);
- Professional support of educational process for children within Child Day Care;
- Consulting and proposals for cooperation between families and nannies, exchange of work experience and further education.
